ROLE AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The deck manager is responsible for overseeing backstage operations during tech, dress rehearsals and performances. They coordinate with the stage manager to maintain the integrity of the production by ensuring that backstage technical elements and scene shifts can be executed safely and efficiently, and as designed.

Essential Duties:

- Oversee 1 additional run crew member.
- Attend all technical rehearsals, dress rehearsals and performances.
- Assist the stage manager with establishing the backstage layout and traffic patterns of people and scenery.
- Coordinate with the stage manager to determine specific tracks for the run crew and keep run sheets updated to reflect any changes.
- Complete pre-show and post-show duties as assigned. This may include sweeping/mopping/vacuuming, prop preset/reset, moving scenery/furniture.
- Support special events including talkbacks, backstage tours and photo calls. This may require an adjustment to pre-show call time or post-show departure time on certain days.
- Execute show duties accurately and efficiently.
- Assist the stage manager with any necessary adjustments or quick repairs to scenery or props during a performance.
- Coordinate with the stage manager and props supervisor to replenish consumables as needed.
- Note any maintenance needs to set pieces and props and communicate those needs to the stage manager.
- Participate in strike, which will follow the final performance and last for several hours.
- Other duties as assigned.
